

Contents

| | | |
|------------------|--|------------|
| Preface | | vii |
| | Adrian Scribano, Angelica De Sena and Alessandro Pratesi | |
| Chapter 1 | Interstitial Practices and Emotions in a Soup Kitchen in Rome..... | 1 |
| | Angelica De Sena | |
| Chapter 2 | How to Study Love: Methodological Reflections on Love and Migration from Mexico to Italy | 21 |
| | Paulina Sabugal | |
| Chapter 3 | Crafting Perceptions: Travel Influencers and the Affective-Moral Imaginaries of Public Transport | 51 |
| | Federico La Bruna | |
| Chapter 4 | Emotions and Threat in Local (and Global) Environmental Activism: The No TAP Conflict in Southern Italy | 69 |
| | Vito Giannini | |
| Chapter 5 | Italian Anaesthetics: The Military Ethic in the Contemporary Italian Public Sphere | 89 |
| | Giacomo Lampredi | |
| Chapter 6 | Emotions and Italian Environmentalism in the Aftermath of the Chernobyl Accident | 107 |
| | Roberto Tesei | |

| | | |
|------------------|---|------------|
| Chapter 7 | Randall Collins’s Contribution to the Sociology of Emotions and Its Relevance in Interpreting Contemporary Italian Emotional Scenarios and Dynamics..... | 123 |
| | Alessandro Pratesi | |
| Chapter 8 | Ageing and Urban Emotions: Ressentement, Social Virtues, and the Experience of the City..... | 143 |
| | Letizia Carrera | |
| Chapter 9 | The Emotions of Young Sicilians During the COVID-19 Pandemic | 165 |
| | Adrian Scribano | |
| Index | | 187 |